Green Screen

The Atlantic Eco-Expo is committed to encouraging and promoting sustainable development by uniting consumers with organizations that provide sustainable products and services. To ensure the highest level of consistency, exhibitors will be "green screened" by the Atlantic Eco-Expo review board. The review board will consider information on the company's website and the company profile provided to the Atlantic Eco-Expo to confirm that exhibitors' products and services are sustainable. If further information is required, exhibitors will be contacted directly.

Cooperative Booths

The Atlantic Eco-Expo recognizes that small organizations and businesses may not be interested in purchasing an entire booth, therefore we are offering cooperative booths. If you are interested, the Atlantic Eco-Expo team will match you up with a compatible business or organization.
